

Willis Dady Emergency Shelter

Non-Discrimination Policy

Willis Dady Emergency Shelter prohibits discrimination against and harassment of any employee, applicant for employment, volunteer, applicant for volunteering, client, or potential client because of race, color, national or ethnic origin, age, religion, disability (mental or physical), sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, veteran status (special disabled veterans, disabled veterans and Vietnam-era veterans), or any other characteristic protected under applicable federal or state law. Due to federal and state law, Willis Dady Emergency Shelter is unable to house any individuals who are listed on the state or federal sex offender registries. Willis Dady Emergency Shelter specifically serves homeless males and male-headed households; thus all potential clients are subject to the related requirements.

All personnel who are responsible for hiring, screening, interviewing, and interacting with current and potential employees, volunteers, and clients are charged to support this effort and to respond promptly and appropriately to any concerns that are brought to their attention.
